

The Avid Reader Presents Author

Seth Masket

of the University of Denver presenting research from his book

No Middle Ground

How Informal Party Organizations
Control Nominations and Polarize Legislatures

Why is compromise on the decline and partisanship on the rise in the California government and across the country? Seth Masket's new book – No Middle Ground – helps explain where these trends come from and what they mean for our state's future. Join us for the presentation and conversation.

Thursday, April 8, 2010
7:00PM – 8:00PM

The Avid Reader
1600 Broadway
Sacramento

Seth Masket is assistant professor of political science at the University of Denver. He teaches and researches on party organizations, state legislatures, and campaign and elections.